

La dolce vita in a burst of colour – short cruise following Italy’s legendary nostalgic coast: Rome (Civitavecchia) – Rome (Civitavecchia)

A little break from your daily routine

It is amazing how quickly a sailing cruise can remove you from the everyday hustle and bustle of life! Once the wind swells the sails and the SEA CLOUD sets off into the distant horizon, you step into a whole new, unique world. No matter whether you are keen to enjoy the authentic windjammer atmosphere on board or discover the charming cities onshore, hundreds of new impressions will turn your little break into a wonderful experience.

Capri: destination of nostalgic dreams

Ever since the German painter August Kopisch discovered the Blue Grotto 190 years ago, Capri has been the epitome of Italian nostalgia. When the red sun is swallowed by the sea in the evenings and the day-trippers have left, the island exudes its true sentimental charm. Now, the little lanes and boutiques are all yours, and you can end your evening with a Limoncello on the Piazzetta.

The scenic Amalfi Coast

Violet bougainvillea in front of pastel pink facades; houses clinging to the cliffs like swallows’ nests; a grand open staircase looking out onto the glistening turquoise sea – Sorrent, Positano and Amalfi sometimes seem too good to be true. But the colourful, romantic fishing villages are real. In 1997, the UNESCO declared the Amalfi Coast a World Heritage Site.
