Prepare to embark on both an exciting sailing cruise and a relaxed holiday: Our two tall ships Sea Cloud and Sea Cloud II combine the best of both worlds. Whilst our crew climbs high up into the masts to set the sails by hand, down on deck our service team treats guests to a first-class service. Our elegant, exclusive yachts are the perfect place to experience the seamless combination of ancient seafaring tradition and a luxury modern-day break.
PASSIONATE ABOUT SAILING

A passion for exclusive tall ships and sophisticated indulgence has shaped the legacy of our two yachts since their creation. The American millionaire couple Edward F. Hutton and Marjorie Merriweather Post were already owners of several luxury vessels when, in 1929, they commissioned the construction of a new ship – one that would be larger and more extravagant than anything that had gone before. The legendary Sea Cloud was born, a yacht whose beauty would, 70 years later, go on to inspire the building of its sister ship, the Sea Cloud II. Yet as elegant as our two windjammers may be, these two vessels are imbued with sailing tradition: On these ships, sailing is not just for show – it is a true craft. When the orders ring out over the deck and the crew climb the masts to hoist the sails, every single manoeuvre marks a centuries-old ritual being brought to life.
The sailing crew pulls with all their power on a hemp rope that disappears into the rigging twenty metres above their heads. The mighty sails flap in the fresh sea breeze, starting a tug-of-war with the team down below. Flawlessly polished brass shines in the sunlight. Then with one final strong tug on the main halyard, the yacht is ready to feel the full force of the wind – mission accomplished! It takes our crew almost one hour to hoist the sails by hand, and it is a fascinating spectacle each and every time. Once firmly enveloped in a romantic tall ship setting, you will understand just why our vessels are the most beautiful part of the adventure; after all, a voyage aboard a majestic tall ship is much more than just a cruise.

TRULY AUTHENTIC, TRULY ROMANTIC
GENUINE AND PERSONAL SERVICE WITH STYLE

Part of the unique appeal of a private yacht is the intimacy of the setting and that feeling of being amongst friends. The Sea Cloud and the Sea Cloud II offer our guests exactly the same experience thanks to their sophisticated yet relaxed atmosphere. Our crew of around 60 is there to ensure that all of our guests on board – a maximum of 94 travellers from all over the world – enjoy a unique cruise that is tailored to their needs. Our personal service and laid-back ambience allow you to enjoy an exquisite experience at your own pace.

ARRIVE, RELAX, ENJOY

The whistling of the wind as it blows past the halyard and the gentle sound of the sea will soon banish away the stresses and strains of your daily routine. Your inner sense of time is all that matters on board – a time that is not measured in seconds, but in magical moments. Let the day go by without a care in the world, chat with your fellow guests whilst admiring the view, listen in on an interesting lecture, watch the captain at work on the bridge – or simply let your mind wander like the clouds in the perfect blue sky.
MOMENTS OF INDULGENCE FOR YOUR SENSES

It is the little, finer things in life that turn a cruise into an extraordinary experience. From the luxurious décor and the exquisite and creatively designed cuisine to our first-class service, on board the Sea Cloud and the Sea Cloud II we offer an exclusive holiday that is designed around you. Our entire crew takes great pleasure in treating every guest to a unique experience, and in exceeding expectations time and time again.
Our ships exude a classic maritime atmosphere that is as timeless as the ocean. This splendid on-board ambience is completed by the exquisite, carefully chosen décor – be it the comfortable deckchairs that pepper our vast, elegant teak wood decks, the fine wood features that exude warmth and comfort, or our tastefully designed outside cabins which offer each guest an unobstructed view of the sea. Our own five-star style is also reflected in the countless small gestures and attention to detail shown by our staff. Welcome champagne awaits you in your cabin upon arrival, and you can end each day with selected bedtime sweets. The cabins are meticulously cleaned twice daily, your fruit basket is constantly kept replenished and the crew will welcome you back on board with a refreshment after each excursion. Aboard our ships your wish is our command. Our mission is to make all guests feel at home from the moment they set foot on board.
Ships were once the one and only passion of seafarers, and that still rings true for the crew on board the Sea Cloud and the Sea Cloud II today. For our staff, life on board both of our windjammers is more than just a job. You will find passion and a sense of belonging wherever you go on our ships: from the engine room to the masts, and from the bridge to the laundry room. Not only is their work pure perfection, it is also part of their identity. Many of our crew have been working together for years and form part of a well-established team. Each guest is welcomed into this passionate group of seafarers with a warm smile, and, with loving attention to detail and charm, each member of staff will help ensure that your journey on board is as unique as you.
CULINARY DELIGHTS AT SEA

From fresh croissants to perfectly cooked beef tenderloin, the chefs on board our two windjammers pour all of their creativity and skill into providing guests with culinary delights from morning until night. Their elaborate menus are complemented with regional specialities and always include a vegetarian option. Their exquisite dishes are served with the perfect accompaniment: outstanding, first-class wines – at no extra cost. Our sommelier is passionate about the finest quality wines, exploring the cellars of prestigious wine-makers to bring you the most delectable flavours.
On board everyone sits down to enjoy their meals together, but there is no fixed seating plan: As with any private yacht, you simply sit wherever and with whomever you choose, thus leaving room for interesting table discussions, whether indulging in a formal dinner in our restaurant or a lunchtime buffet or evening barbecue in the sun at the beautifully decorated tables on deck. Experience true luxury beneath the sails, as you set a course for complete relaxation on board the legendary Sea Cloud or within the comfortable setting of the Sea Cloud II.
SEA CLOUD
THE LEGEND BENEATH WHITE SAILS

A self-assured grande dame, a stylish yet informal sailing icon and a generous host – the SEA CLOUD is a living legend. Built as a private luxury yacht, this ship combines extravagant charm with an authentic tall ship experience.
Golden, swan-shaped taps, splendid marble fireplaces, French antiques – as heiress to a fortune totalling several million dollars, Marjorie Merriweather Post was able to let her imagination run free when it came to building her private yacht.

In 1931 the “Hussar” (as the Sea Cloud was originally named) was launched in Kiel. Together with her husband, the savvy stockbroker Edward Hutton, Marjorie turned this elegant four-masted barque into a stage for her eccentric lifestyle.

Her friends included aristocracy and Hollywood stars, and politicians and diplomats often graced the decks of this windjammer.
INDULGENCE
MEETS RELAXATION

Even today every detail on board this yacht shines with the glory of a bygone age. The Sea Cloud’s elegance appears timeless; proof that this vessel has lost none of its unconventional charm. Whether you are staying in one of its lovingly renovated original cabins, a cosy outside cabin or one of the former officers’ cabins, the Sea Cloud welcomes each guest on board like a long-standing friend. Rigid etiquette is nowhere to be found, not even in the oak-tabled restaurant. Sat at long tables, guests can enjoy the delicacies conjured up by the kitchen staff in a relaxed setting before retiring to a deck chair, to the lido bar or the cosy Blue Lagoon area for a moment of relaxation.
Who says you cannot have it all? The tall ship Sea Cloud II brings together the best of two worlds: This spacious three-masted barque offers all the amenities of a modern cruise ship whilst remaining a quintessential windjammer.
EXPANSIVE DECKS, GENEROUS CABINS AND MANY FAVOURITE PLACES

A cappuccino in the elegant lounge? A spot of sunbathing on the lido deck? A quiet moment with a book in the library? There are many favourite places to be discovered on board the Sea Cloud II. This tall ship bears all the hallmarks of its older sister, the legendary Sea Cloud, and yet still has a charm all of its own. With its four expansive decks, amenities such as a sauna, gym, boutique and swim platform, as well as the generous range of facilities on offer in its guest cabins, the Sea Cloud II proposes exclusive comforts that are sure to impress even seasoned cruise goers.
“Set sail!” – Guests will momentarily crane their necks upwards when the captain of the Sea Cloud II gives the order to embark. The crew’s climb up into the shrouds marks the beginning of a spectacle that is much more than just a show. The Sea Cloud II is a celebration of true sailing. When the ship was built 15 years ago, we deliberately decided against a fully-automatic rig; this ship’s sails are hoisted and lowered the traditional way – by hand. This allows guests to enjoy the romantic tall ship experience in refined exclusivity. Our 29 de luxe outside cabins, 16 junior suites and two owner suites accommodate a maximum of 94 guests on this voyage of relaxation.
Northern Europe

Archipelagos and amazing fjords, imposing castles and magnificent imperial architecture, picturesque gardens and elegant vineyards – this is Northern Europe at its very best.

Atlantic and Canaries

The Canary Islands and the Atlantic coast of Spain and Portugal provide a multi-faceted experience, including art and culture, charming landscapes and a relaxed way of life. Magical Morocco will draw you into the world of the Arabian Nights.

Lesser Antilles and Cuba

Tropical forests and bathing paradises make the Lesser Antilles, located between the British Virgin Islands and the Grenadines, a wonderful place for sailing. Cuba enchants with its retro-style Caribbean flair.

Costa Rica and Panama

From mysterious Maya pyramids and colourful tropical landscapes to bustling cities and the technological brilliance of the Panama Canal – Central America is home to a range of fascinating attractions.
Whether it be “dolce vita” or “savoir vivre” – the lifestyle on the coasts of Italy, Spain and France is one to cherish. Sunny islands, charming ports, quaint restaurants and historic locations provide the right setting for the Mediterranean way of life.

A cruise through the Aegean and Adriatic Seas under a blue sky will take you back through the centuries: The itineraries feature the legendary Cyclades and Sporades islands, magnificent Baroque cities and impressive ancient sites.
The Lesser Antilles run through the turquoise Caribbean Sea like a shimmering string of pearls. The waters between the British Virgin Islands in the north and the Grenadines in the south provide the perfect sailing conditions for windjammers as well as intriguing insights into a highly diverse range of cultures and lifestyles. Want to go on an excursion through tropical green forest to the volcanic sulphur springs? Why not enjoy an exquisite sundowner while watching elegant luxury yachts or perhaps go bare-footed into the beach bar? Fortunately there is no need to choose any particular highlight because every day will surprise you with a new and enjoyable feature.

Cuba really is the heart of the Caribbean. Cut off from the capitalist West, this is a country which has kept itself free of American fast food chains and flamboyant advertising and which always knows how to make a virtue out of necessity. Life here is all about being resourceful: In Havana’s UNESCO-protected old town you will see colourful vintage cars, and people who cannot afford entry into an expensive club simply dance on the Malecón seafront promenade to the lively rhythms of street music.
Narrow, little houses with gabled roofs, market stalls and small cafés serving “Eierkoek” – if it was not for the radiant rays of sun and the white, palm-fringed beaches, you could easily mistake this area for a Dutch province. That is because the three ABC islands of Aruba, Bonaire and Curaçao playfully engage with their colonial past, and with their blend of European tradition and Caribbean living, they serve up a colourful cocktail that is sure to put a smile on your face.

Nature lovers will encounter a vibrant, tropical paradise brimming with natural wonders in Panama’s and Costa Rica’s unique national parks. In the treetops of the evergreen rainforests, mangrove swamps and warm, crystal-clear waters, an abundance of fascinating animal species await. Follow this intensive natural encounter with a taste of urban life in trendy Panama City located close to the Panama Canal. Now over 100 years old, this construction is still considered one of the greatest feats in human engineering. The same is also often said of the mystical Maya temple structures found in Mexico and Belize. These mysterious places of worship, with their impressive stepped pyramids and artistic stone relief carvings, have lost none of their magical appeal over the past several millennia.
Whilst autumn winds are blowing the leaves from the trees elsewhere, the Canary Islands still have many months of sunshine ahead. These "Islands of Eternal Spring" may all share the same pleasant climate, but each one impresses with its own inimitable beauty. Gran Canaria and Tenerife offer vast beaches and a vibrant urban scene, whilst on El Hierro, La Palma and La Gomera you can experience the serenity of Mother Nature. With fine sand dunes, such as those found on Fuerteventura, and the peculiar lava-sculpted landscapes of Lanzarote, the Canary Islands are one of the planet’s most intriguing places to explore by sea and offer an abundance of unique scenery and culture.

The Moroccan coast lies a mere 60 nautical miles away. With bustling souks, scents of oriental spices and elaborately designed sultan’s palaces, the ancient imperial cities of Rabat, Marrakech and Taroudant instantly envelope visitors in a whirlwind of bewitching sights, sounds and smells. This fairytale setting will leave you with memories that will last long after we have left port.
From the craggy archipelagos off the coast of Sweden to the golden cupolas of St Petersburg; from lively Mediterranean-inspired towns along the English Riviera to Stone-Age archaeological sites on the Orkney Islands; from wildly romantic Brittany to exclusive wine regions in France and Spain – the countries in northern and western Europe provide a true mix of scenic and atmospheric discovery.

On board the Sea Cloud II you get a close-up view of Europe’s most charming coastlines from the sea. With hardly a sound, our tall ship glides past the red and white timber houses nestled in the rugged fjord landscape. We sail to the Scottish and Irish coasts, follow the old Hanseatic trade routes to the glamorous ports of the Baltic and embark on a voyage of culinary discovery in the Bordeaux region.

And whether you spend the day admiring the Nordic beauty of Tallinn, catching some sunrays in Galicia and Portugal, or taking in the sights and smells of a fragrant English garden, in the evening you will be given a warm welcome back on board the Sea Cloud II – your elegant home at sea.
Winding alleyways and elegant promenades, magnificent cathedrals and Moorish palaces, tranquil fishing villages and vibrant cities – the Western Mediterranean rewards travellers every day with new, exciting experiences. This region is not just a wonderful sailing area but also an enchanting place laden with history and stories, a lighthearted zest for life and dramatic landscapes.

From Andalusia to the Balearic Islands, from Corsica to the Côte d’Azur, from Sicily to the Amalfi Coast – our tall ships sail to the most beautiful destinations in Spain, France and Italy. What takes your fancy? A trip to a vibrant local market to try some of the region’s olives? Mingling with luxury shoppers from the international jet set? Exploring the ruins of ancient temple complexes or hiking through pristine volcanic landscapes? There is no rush to decide. On board you will have plenty of peace and quiet in which to look forward to all the wide-ranging wonders of the Mediterranean.
War-mongering gods, fearless seafarers and immortal poets – a tall ship voyage through the Aegean will plunge you into the fabled world of myths and legends. It is also the perfect way to enjoy modern life at a leisurely pace: Between radiant, whitewashed churches and small taverns with dark-blue doors, you will feel as though time itself has stopped. In Istanbul you will discover a completely different pace of life. This dazzling metropolis on the Bosphorus takes visitors on a spellbinding trip through the ages and cultures.

Venice will make you feel as though you are inside a real-life painting. Up until the 16th century, this romantic lagoon city was a powerful centre for trade where the aristocracy had their names immortalised by building splendid palaces and churches. Venetian influence can still be felt right across the Adriatic region, a territory that once belonged to the Republic of Venice. Thousands of small islands await, offering countless new experiences. From impressive waterfalls in Croatia’s Krka National Park to Dubrovnik’s sea of red-tiled roofs; from Istria’s lush green pine forests to Ravenna’s majestic mosaics, the Adriatic proves that it has more than one gem hidden up its sleeve.
Who can resist the magic that envelops you aboard a windjammer? White sails, proud masts and a golden eagle on the bow almost immediately evoke that romantic feeling of longing for far-away shores and adventures in the ocean’s vast expanse. Just beyond the horizon you will find dreamlike harbours, secluded bays and fascinating cities waiting to be discovered. Yet some people may want a more intensive tall ship experience than others. That is why we offer different types of travel.

Those cruises which focus specifically on sailing have been marked with our small “sailing” symbol so that you can quickly and easily find the type of sailing holiday that best suits your ideal windjammer break.

MAKE THE JOURNEY YOUR DESTINATION
The majority of our cruises offer a balanced mix of sailing time and exciting on-shore discoveries. Our windjammers mostly strike sail in places where picturesque harbours and anchorages invite you to set foot on land and to become acquainted with the local culture and way of life. It is the perfect opportunity to get out and discover more – either on your own or on one of our organised excursions.

EXPERIENCE LAND, SEA AND PEOPLE

On some of our sailing cruises our windjammers will only reach their destination late in the afternoon and will remain in port overnight. This means that sailing enthusiasts can spend many wonderful hours at sea whilst still having time in the evening to head off and explore each fascinating harbour town. A relaxed stroll through the port or old town is the perfect way to take in the local atmosphere.

DAYS AT SEA, NIGHTS IN PORT
WHEREVER THE WIND TAKES US

Do you savour the journey more than the destination? If so, you will probably be interested in one of our sailing cruises without a fixed itinerary. On these cruises, only the wind determines which route our majestic windjammer will take. Prepare yourself for the unexpected, no matter where the elements take us – our sailing routes are filled with atmospheric harbour towns and romantic bays that can be explored on individual trips ashore.

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC UNDER BILLING SAILS

The Atlantic crossing is the trip of a lifetime – and a wonderful experience for true sailing fans. Two whole weeks alone with the ocean, two whole weeks devoted to sailing: Embark on the famous Columbus route between the Canary Islands and the Caribbean and completely give yourself over to the elements – it is the perfect way to truly escape your everyday routine.
For the Sea Cloud and the Sea Cloud II 2016 will be a special year indeed as it will see our two windjammers reach a collective age of 100. Launched in 1931, the legendary Sea Cloud has been sailing the world’s oceans for an impressive 85 years. And even the younger Sea Cloud II has already been cruising some of the most beautiful sailing regions for 15 years.

To celebrate reaching their one hundred year milestone, the two yachts will sail side by side on several voyages in 2016 – and will be surprising guests with a number of exclusive birthday events.
A grand lady turns 85 – an exclusive springtime birthday cruise with the Sea Cloud on the Iberian Peninsula: Lisbon – Barcelona

Sail alongside the Sea Cloud II
The year 2016 sees the Sea Cloud and the Sea Cloud II mark an impressive 100 years of sailing – and even windjammers enjoy celebrating milestones in the company of their nearest and dearest. For five days the sisters will follow the same course along the Spanish coast. In Málaga guests will be invited on board the Sea Cloud II for a tour of the yacht.

The gentle pace of life in Cádiz
History comes alive in the city of Cádiz. One of Europe’s oldest cities, this charming harbour town boasts a beautiful cathedral and baroque buildings, a tranquil old town and defiant watch towers. The town centre, with its delightful tapas bars, can be easily explored on foot from the harbour. And there is no shortage of good wine, as Jerez de la Frontera, with its sherry and wine cellars, is close by.

A festive, Gaudí-themed evening
Rooftop tiles reminiscent of the scales on a dragon’s back, branching columns that resemble tree trunks – Antoni Gaudí’s original use of style, with flowing, organic details, brought the artist international fame. An exclusive evening in one of his masterfully designed buildings is the perfect way to celebrate the great modernist architect. A concert and cocktail reception are included.

A special guest on board:
Patricia Witzigmann
To celebrate the 85th birthday of the Sea Cloud, our special on-board lecturer, actress and entertainer Patricia Witzigmann will bring the eventful history of the Sea Cloud to life. She will also hold a number of diverse lectures from her popular and wide-ranging “Lecturetainment” series.

Depending upon the circumstances, it is possible that another lecturer will be on board for this trip.

Sail with the Sea Cloud II to Andalusia and the Balearic Islands in the company of the yacht’s legendary sister: Lisbon – Mallorca

Two tall ships, one course
The Sea Cloud II and the Sea Cloud will begin their own windjammer parade even before we leave Lisbon harbour. Both yachts will sail peacefully side-by-side as they make their way from Portugal towards Andalusia. The two ships will spend several outstanding days together before parting ways in Valencia, where the Sea Cloud II will set sail for the sun-drenched Balearic Islands.

An enchanted farewell to Lisbon
You will be treated to unique panoramic views of the Tagus as the Sea Cloud II pulls out of Lisbon, going past the epic Monument to the Discoveries, which is dedicated to Henry the Navigator. The Torre de Belém, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, celebrates the country’s glory during its time as a colonial power.

A fascinating mix in Valencia
Many bygone eras have left their mark on Valencia, but this historical legacy is juxtaposed with an impressive mixture of magnificent modern buildings. It is this vast spectrum that gives the city its unique appeal. The off-beat design of the opera house appears futuristic, with the building situated in an expansive museum and park district that stretches from the city centre all the way to the coast. A number of beautiful beaches are also located within the city.

Menorca – the pristine Balearic island
From the rugged mountain region of Tramuntana in the north of the island, with its steep coastal areas, to gentle rolling hills and vast sandy beaches in the south – Menorca’s natural beauty has many facets. If you prefer the romantic setting of ancient narrow passageways, you will find just what you are looking for in Ciutadella, the island’s former capital.

Happy Birthday, Sea Cloud II – a summer birthday cruise to Denmark, Norway and Scotland.

The many facets of the North
Rock faces that plunge into the sea, picturesque coastal villages, fairytale castles – on the journey from southern Norway to Scotland, every day features a new landscape to discover. The North is surprisingly diverse and you will be just as enchanted by the raw charm of the Shetland and Orkney Islands as the modern thrills of two cultural hubs, Bergen and Edinburgh.

Mysterious ancient sites:
Skara Brae and Brodgar
Scotland’s wild North is home to the mysterious ruins of Neolithic settlements. Skara Brae comprises eight round houses dating back 4,500 years, and the Ring of Brodgar is even larger than Stonehenge. Between the weathered stones and grassy mounds, you are sure to feel a touch of mythical magic.

A delightful capital with cosmopolitan charm: Copenhagen
The Danes are famed for their timeless designs, their liberal attitudes and their penchant for creating a cosy (“hyggelige”) atmosphere. All these Danish hallmarks can be found in Copenhagen. In this charming harbour city, famous landmarks such as the Amaliaborg Castle or the statue of the Little Mermaid are situated just alongside stylish little cafés and museums.

Crathes Castle: a fairytale castle and its beautiful gardens
With its small bay windows and turrets, its winding spiral staircases and enchanting vaulted ceilings, Crathes Castle looks like it has been lifted from a fairytale and planted in the Scottish countryside. This 16th century stately home is surrounded by an ornate, walled garden – heaven for all kinds of gardening enthusiasts.

An atmospheric birthday celebration in Bergen
Troldhaugen (Troll Hill) is the name of the house in Bergen where Edvard Grieg lived right up until his death in 1907. Today this distinctive wooden house is a museum, and on this trip it will play host to an exclusive festive birthday concert in honour of the Sea Cloud II, of course featuring famous works by the great Norwegian composer.

Austere and upbeat, historical and cool: Edinburgh
You could say that the Scottish capital is a visitors’ attraction in its own right. From its stunning castle, which majestically towers over the Old Town, guests can enjoy outstanding views of the Royal Mile and the Georgian New Town. The old streets are filled with many enticing pubs that offer not just exquisite spirits but world class cultural events as well; After all, the Edinburghers are known for their love of festivals.

A lecturer accompanies the trip
Knowledge, entertainment and facts – our expert is on hand to give talks on a wide variety of specialist subjects. He will also be on board to answer any questions that you may have.

Experience the grand birthday cruise on board the Sea Cloud – two windjammers sail and celebrate together: Malta – Mallorca

Malta – an impressive walled city

The Sea Cloud and the Sea Cloud II sail under the Maltese flag, so what could be more fitting than to begin our birthday voyage in Valletta’s harbour. Malta’s capital will also be celebrating in 2016, as it marks the 450th anniversary of its birth as a fortified city. After the siege of the Ottomans, the Knights of Malta built mighty bastions that remain an impressive sight to this day.

A panorama for the Gods: Taormina

From Taormina, Mount Etna seems to be close enough to touch. This picturesque town sits on the cliffs high above the sea and offers outstanding views of the volcano and the deep-blue waters of the Gulf of Giardini Naxos. The charming streets of the old town are perfect to explore on foot.

An exclusive evening in a private palazzo

Sicily’s advantageous location in the Mediterranean has long made it a desirable conquest. Phoenicians, Greeks, Normans and the Hohenstaufens left their mark on the island, and Palermo’s palaces still paint a picture of the opulent lives the aristocracy once led. A private palazzo will be opening its gates for the guests of Sea Cloud and Sea Cloud II for an exclusive evening filled with visual and musical treats.

A lecturer accompanies the trip

Knowledge, entertainment and facts – our expert is on hand to give talks on a wide variety of specialist subjects. He will also be on board to answer any questions that you may have.
Experience the grand birthday cruise on board the Sea Cloud II – a six-day celebration side-by-side: Malta – Málaga

Side-by-side for six days at sea

The vast expanse of the ocean, the clear sky overhead, islands floating on the horizon: The view from the deck of a hand-sailed windjammer is nothing short of breathtaking. On this magnificent joint birthday cruise guests will enjoy an even more impressive sight. For six days the legendary Sea Cloud will sail alongside the Sea Cloud II – tall ship sailing cannot be more romantic than this.

Bathed in gold: the Cappella Palatina and its mosaics

At the highest point of the medieval town centre in Palermo lies a castle whose roots can be traced back to the Normans. From the outside this building seems imposing and spellbinding, but its interior charm is truly breathtaking – especially the “Cappella Palatina” and its design with Arab, Byzantine and Norman influences. Stained glass and gold mosaics on the walls, a wooden ceiling richly adorned with Arab ornaments, and an artistic marble floor are what give this former Palazzo Reale Chapel Royal its true fairy-tale atmosphere.

The call of the country: an evening of Mallorcan delights

In the evening we leave the quaint, winding streets of Palma’s old town and head out into the countryside. Mallorca’s sedate rural areas welcome visitors with a vast hilly landscape, dense forests, small villages – and delicious local specialities. At a typical finca you will enjoy exquisite Mallorcan wine and food.

A lecturer accompanies the trip

The Sea Cloud II’s itinerary features a vast array of ports. Our on-board lecturer will give guests an entertaining and exciting background knowledge about our various destinations.

Wonderful jungles and elegant lifestyle, colourful underwater worlds and aromatic spices.

Tobago: an island paradise
The small fishing village of Charlotteville is situated in Tobago’s idyllic Man-O-War Bay and can only be reached by land via a steep road which cuts through the rainforest. With the yacht anchored in the town’s picturesque bay, you will have plenty of time to discover the island or to plunge into the emerald-green waters.

Grenada – the island of spice
Although Grenada has been blessed with around 45 picture-perfect beaches, the country’s real treasure remains its lush, green island interior. Deep volcanic lakes, dense rainforests, waterfalls and small river courses form the primordial backdrop of the island’s sugar cane fields and spice plantations. It is the reason why the scent of cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg hangs in the air wherever you go on Grenada.

Snorkellers’ paradise in the Tobago Cays
For many, life under water is a fascinating world – one that becomes even more magical the closer you get. The Tobago Cays’ Horseshoe Reef is such a place. This horseshoe-shaped coral reef encloses four small islands that glow in rich shades of green. The sea, in contrast, embraces turquoise, emerald and every shade of blue.

The natural beauty spots of St Lucia and Dominica
The pitons of St Lucia are world famous and magnificently beautiful. But perhaps even more beautiful is the unique view you will have of this stunning natural masterpiece from the Sea Cloud’s anchorage. Dominica is one of the wildest and most primal of the Lesser Antilles. The heart of the island is covered in thick virgin forest, where you will find plunging rivers and small creeks winding their way through the jungle.

The jet set island of St Barts
Although many like to call it “St Barts” for short, the island’s official name is St Barthélemy. Having seen numerous owners, the isle was finally bought by France in 1877 and is now firmly in the hands of the jet set. Elegant Gustavia entices with classy goods and glamour hidden away behind restored facades, and the harbour hosts luxury yachts of famous owners.

“The Baths” – imposing granite formations
It is sometimes easy to think that this is one of nature’s fairy tales: Once upon a time, there was a giant who played with large stone marbles. His favourite playground was in Virgin Gorda, a place now called “The Baths” – a gigantic rock labyrinth made out of circular-shaped granite.

Also on board: Gerrit Aust
Gerrit Aust, historian and author, studied history, Romance philology, archaeology and politics at the University of Hamburg. Since then, he has worked as a lecturer in these fields, held positions in history museums and supervised research projects. For the past twelve years, he has reported on board about our destinations, including their history and people.

Depending upon the circumstances, it is possible that another lecturer will be on board for this trip.

A romantic tall ship experience in the archipelago of the Lesser Antilles and the Grenadines: Barbados – Barbados

Tobago: an island paradise
The small fishing village of Charlotteville is situated in Tobago’s idyllic Man-O-War Bay and can only be reached by land via a steep road which cuts through the rainforest. With the ship anchored in the town’s picturesque bay, you will have plenty of time to discover the island or to plunge into the emerald-green waters.

Snorkellers’ paradise in the Tobago Cays
A unique feature of the Tobago Cays is their unspoilt coral reef, known as the “Horseshoe Reef” due to its shape. It keeps the Atlantic swells at bay and is the perfect place for snorkelling. Once back on dry land, you will be treated to a beach barbecue with culinary specialities.

Stunning islands: St Lucia and Dominica
Although St Lucia is not considered a saint by everyone, the island is certainly the true queen of this idyllic realm. Even from a distance, its twin volcanic peaks, the Pitons, proffer a regal greeting to the approaching Sea Cloud. And once we have docked, the island welcomes us with its lush tropical scenery. Dominica, unofficially dubbed “Nature Island”, is proud of its unspoilt landscape. One of its national parks is even a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The jet set island of St Barts
When the banker David Rockefeller came to this island in the 1960s, he realised one thing: that this is a great place to live. Since then, the small Antilles island of St Barthelemy has welcomed an increasing number of celebrity guests and evolved into a getaway for the rich and famous. Many Hollywood stars love to come here for a holiday retreat and enjoy taking a stroll along the quaint streets of Gustavia.

Our zodiacs bring you to the town or to one of the island’s most beautiful beaches. You will have plenty of time for whatever you choose, be it swimming, snorkelling or taking a stroll.

Idyllic tropical islands, aromatic spices, colonial flair and the many beautiful facets of Panama.

A delight for all the senses: Grenada, the island of spice
There is a reason why nutmeg is immortalised on this country’s national flag. Since colonial times nutmeg – along with cloves, cinnamon and ginger – has been one of the island’s most important exports. If the aromatic fragrance of the tropics were to have a name, it would have to be “Grenada”.

Visit two of the ABC islands: Bonaire and Curaçao
The ABC islands off the coast of Venezuela are considered the “Netherlands of the Caribbean”, and their colonial past is still visible in their pastel-coloured architecture. Date palms stand outside the gabled houses and you can order Dutch “Poffertjes” pancakes alongside cactus liqueur in the restaurants. There are plenty of colours on show underwater, too; and their breathtaking biodiversity renders these island beauties a Mecca for water sports fans.

Panama City and the Panama Canal
When the Panama Canal opened in 1914 after more than 30 years of construction, this shortened the route for ships sailing between New York and Los Angeles by almost 15,000 kilometres (9,320 miles). Panama City has experienced enormous growth ever since. The contrast between its ultra-modern banking centre and lovingly restored historic quarters is what makes this city Central America’s style capital.

Colourful coral islands, legendary ancient Maya cities and that famous Cuban spirit.

Several relaxing days at sea
Besides crossing worlds and discovering new lands, we let relaxation take a front seat on our yacht for four whole days. Plenty of time to enjoy life under the white sails and to be spoilt in every way.

The world’s second largest coral reef

Maya cities in Mexico and Belize
The sophisticated culture of the Maya in Central America, which began roughly 5,000 years ago and ended around the time of the Spanish conquest, is still a mystery. Their ceremonies seem to have been gory, their step pyramids imposing, and their stone carvings required a great deal of skill. On our trip you will discover three mystical Maya strongholds: Tulum, in Mexico, is the only Maya city situated on the coast; Altun Ha and Lamanai are in Belize. Lamanai is situated on the banks of an inland lagoon and remained populated for roughly 3,000 years. Excavations have revealed that over 20,000 people lived there around 700 AD.

Havana’s Tropicana
Discover the place where Nat King Cole, Frank Sinatra and Josephine Baker took to the stage and where Edith Piaf, Ernest Hemingway and Marlon Brando applauded wildly in the audience: the legendary Tropicana in Havana. With its colourful shows, this cabaret nightclub is just as magical, vivacious and thrilling as it was when it opened back in 1939.

Joie de vivre in two-four time against a backdrop of sandy beaches and the lavish villas of sugar barons: Havana – Santo Domingo

Trinidad’s old town
Trinidad de Cuba is a small, friendly place with a long history as a centre for sugar cane farming. Experience its charming coastal setting, lovingly restored facades and gentle pace of life in any of the town’s beautiful squares and old, narrow streets. This small town has a well-deserved place on the UNESCO World Heritage Site list.

Cuban beach heaven
On the Isla de la Juventud and in María la Gorda, the highlights are found in, on and under the water: picture-perfect beaches with palm trees offering shade, a warm, gentle sea sparkling in numerous shades of blue, and a coral reef with perfect conditions for snorkelling.

The spirited music of Cuba
If Cuba is the birthplace of almost every Latin dance style, then Santiago de Cuba is the stage on which they are performed. Nowhere else will you find so much live music or dancing. In the town’s clubs, bars and dance schools, the rhythms of salsa, son and rumba are omnipresent and just as thrilling as in the world-famous Buena Vista Social Club. A band will also be performing on board.

Lush tropical paradises, glamorous haunts of the jet set and a day of sailing alongside the Sea Cloud II: Santo Domingo – Barbados

The famous seafarer hideouts of Bequia, Jost van Dyke and Virgin Gorda

Once, notorious pirates would hide out in the protected bays of these three Antilles islands. Now they are a haven away from the everyday hustle and bustle of life. You will find it easy to give in to the infectious joie de vivre here in the rustic beach clubs, in bars located beneath the palm trees, on beautiful beaches and in some of the most popular yacht clubs.

The savoir-vivre of the Îles des Saintes

This archipelago has been part of France since the 17th century. Overlooked by a historical fort, the charming small town of Terre-de-Haut offers spectacular unbroken views out over the surrounding bays. Its boutiques, bars, restaurants and cafés are perfect for a spot of browsing.

The jet set island of St Barts

St Barthélemy has had several masters: the Spanish, the Swedes, the French and the Knights of Malta. However, it is now firmly in the hands of the jet set, who come here for short breaks to get away from it all. All of the yachts in the harbour are worth looking at, as are the bars and restaurants.

The magnificent Pitons of St Lucia

Gros and Petit Piton, the two famous volcanic plugs that tower over St Lucia, could have come straight out of a tropical storybook. They are a UNESCO World Heritage Site and offer a spectacular panorama as the Sea Cloud sails closely alongside their slopes.

Magnificent islands, picturesque alleyways, legendary ruins – set sail for the Aegean’s most stunning sites: Athens (Piraeus) – Istanbul

Ancient Mycenae
Mycenae is a town steeped in history and legend. When Heinrich Schliemann began excavating an acropolis site here in 1876, he discovered 13 kilos of golden treasure, including Agamemnon’s alleged death mask. The monumental Lion Gate, the Cyclopean masonry and the Treasury of Atreus are what make Mycenae one of the most important archaeological sites in modern-day Greece.

Authentic Greece: the Sporades
Rebetiko music exuding from a tavern, craggy cliffs lining fine sandy beaches, chalk-white chapels gleaming under a deep-blue sky – does this Greek idyll actually exist? It certainly does on the Sporades! It is almost like a picture-perfect paradise, particularly on the island of Skopelos. Discover its narrow streets and small squares on a trip ashore.

Philippi: an ancient city
A walk through Philippi is a walk through the ages. Originally a Thracian settlement, the city was conquered around 355 BC by Philip of Macedon, the father of Alexander the Great, before it fell under Roman rule roughly 200 years later. It was here in around 50 AD that the Apostle Paul set up the first Christian congregation in Europe. The site’s well-maintained amphitheatre still hosts plenty of performances and events.

One week of just sailing – take a tall ship voyage through the Cyclades and the Sporades: Istanbul – Athens (Piraeus)

Sail wherever the wind takes you
On this trip our legendary tall ship will show you exactly what it was born to do, with nothing but the wind determining its course and the captain obeying its orders. Just how many knots can the Sea Cloud get up to? At how many ports will it call? The answers will emerge – new at every hour and on each of the six days at sea.

Just one goal: relaxation
For seven whole days you can enjoy your trip without any organised stops, schedules, or timetables. The freedom beneath the sails knows no bounds; here you will find the perfect place to relax. Time passes slowly as you effortlessly unwind and relaxation takes hold.

Time for unique shore excursions
Although the most important part of a sailing cruise is the windjammer experience, some interesting destinations also await you on land. The Aegean offers an abundance of beautiful harbours and picturesque bays. Once we reach the shore, the only one who decides what to do is you: walk through narrow streets, sit in delightful cafés or explore the artisan shops.

Sail along historical routes – travel between picturesque Aegean harbours and legendary ancient sites: Athens (Piraeus) – Istanbul

Two significant excavation sites
It is almost like walking through an outdoor museum. Whether you are in Mycenae admiring its Lion Gate and Cyclopean masonry, or standing between the impressive white pillars of the Trajan temple in Pergamon – history comes to life in the Aegean. Its ruins offer vivid insights into life in ancient times and reveal the wealth that many cities enjoyed.

The Jerusalem of the Aegean: Patmos
The idyllic island of Patmos is believed to be the place where John the Evangelist wrote the Book of Revelation. The grotto where he is said to have had his apocalyptic visions is one of the holiest sites for followers of the Greek Orthodox Church. The monastery built in his name has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The charming capital of the Cyclades
Ermoupolis, capital of the island of Syros and the entire Cyclades, was built on two hills and is a unique architectural accomplishment. A great number of monumental neo-classical buildings create the impression of a sophisticated city. As you ascend, the opulence and vastness give way to a maze of narrow passages, creating a more medieval atmosphere. And no matter where you are in this city, the cafés and taverns are filled with Greeks alone, and tourists are nowhere to be seen.

From vibrant city life in the Bosporus metropolis to the charming islands of the Cyclades: Istanbul – Athens (Piraeus)

Istanbul: the city where East meets West
Eastern and western culture, traditional bazaars and a buzzing nightlife – opposites certainly attract in Istanbul. This iridescently beautiful city, which is rooted in two continents, has served as a capital to three of the world’s great empires since it was founded over 2,600 years ago. The Greeks, the Romans, the Byzantines, the Ottomans and the Turks have all left their mark.

The magic of the Cyclades
Houses like sugar cubes, blue window-frames, narrow winding streets lined with flowers, windmills and small churches – Mykonos, perhaps the most famous of the Cyclades islands, could have come straight from a book. Set against fishing boats bobbing in the harbour, elegant restaurants, quaint taverns and sophisticated cafés are perfect for whiling away the hours, and the promenade offers visitors a spectacular view of a romantic sunset.

Sail the day away
For ten years the mythological hero Odysseus sailed around the Mediterranean until he finally found his way back home. Aboard the Sea Cloud, we also make plenty of time for sailing as we cruise through the Greek islands. During the day the windjammer glides across the sun-kissed Aegean. Only in the afternoon does the ship drop anchor in a harbour or a quiet bay. It is the perfect recipe for relaxation.

Romantic lagoons, charming cities and picture-perfect natural wonders around the Adriatic: Venice – Venice

An enchanted farewell to Venice
No other farewell is as romantic and melancholic as the route taken by the Sea Cloud as it leaves the Floating City. Our tall ship slowly sails past all of Venice’s famous buildings and offers a panoramic view of the magnificent St Mark’s Square, the Campanile, the Bridge of Sighs and the Doge’s Palace.

The Krka waterfalls
Mother Nature has carved out an extraordinary and wildly romantic water scene in the Krka National Park: Pools of foam emerge as the emerald green waters of the Krka River rush over the cliff edges of the park’s eight waterfalls. Paved hiking trails take you through this stunning wood and park landscape.

Split – the Adriatic metropolis
Split was originally established as a retirement home for the Roman Emperor Diocletian. However, his palace, which took only ten years to build, soon encompassed two main roads, a number of villas, military and civilian constructions and several sacred buildings. This historical complex covers an area of roughly 30,000 square metres (323,000 square feet) and now stands at the centre of the beautiful old town. It undoubtedly deserves its title as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Ravenna – the city of mosaics
Ravenna is a real treasure chest, bursting with magnificent mosaics and well-preserved monuments, including eight UNESCO World Heritage Sites. The Basilica of San Vitale is one such example. Although unremarkable from the outside, its mesmerising interior is covered from floor to ceiling in thousands of glistening tiles.

Retracing the footsteps of the Moors – from Spain’s sun-kissed coast to Morocco: Mallorca – Casablanca

A fascinating mix in Valencia
Many bygone eras have left their mark on Valencia, but this historical legacy is juxtaposed with an impressive mixture of magnificent modern buildings. It is this vast spectrum that gives the city its unique appeal. The off-beat design of the opera house appears futuristic, with the building situated in an expansive museum and park district that stretches from the city centre all the way to the coast. A number of beautiful beaches are also located within the city.

Málaga: a hidden gem
Sightseeing in Málaga begins as soon as you enter the harbour: Standing at the railings, you will be greeted by an idyllic view of many of the city’s sights. The cathedral, the Moorish fort of Alcazaba and the birthplace of Picasso are easily reached by foot from the harbour. Yet Málaga is still considered an insider tip; indeed the old port was only recently redeveloped. It now features a pristine promenade, which is the perfect place for a relaxing stroll.

The gentle pace of life in Cádiz
History comes alive in the city of Cádiz. One of Europe’s oldest cities, this charming harbour town boasts a beautiful cathedral and baroque buildings, a tranquil old town and defiant watch towers. The town centre, with its delightful tapas bars, can be easily explored on foot from the harbour. And there is no shortage of good wine, as Jerez de la Frontera, with its sherry and wine cellars, is close by.

A voyage across the Atlantic – feel the infinite expanse of the sea and embrace the romance of a real-life tall ship: Las Palmas – Curaçao

An authentic sailing experience
Crossing the Atlantic on a traditional tall ship is an experience that leaves a lasting impression. For 17 days your exact course is determined only by the elements. When the crew sets the sails at dizzying heights, the wind is caught in the sailcloth and the ropes creak as they are stretched tight, you will experience a tangible sense of freedom.

Following in Columbus’ footsteps
What would have been going through Columbus’ mind as he set sail in 1492? It is virtually impossible to sail across the Atlantic in the discoverer’s footsteps without constantly considering his thoughts and ideas. Columbus had not yet discovered the trade winds which provide ideal sailing conditions in the westerly direction during the winter months, but nowadays we know that they will provide the Sea Cloud with idyllic sailing on its way to the Caribbean.

Relax and enjoy
Great adventures do not always mean great effort. For 17 days we sail a westwards course across the Atlantic, always heading towards a magnificent sunset. It will not be long before you sit back and relax; surrounded by vast horizons and looked after by an attentive crew, you will leave your every-day stress behind in no time at all.

A lecturer accompanies the trip
Our lecturer will come thoroughly prepared for the two weeks at sea, ready to give you fascinating insights into his/her area of expertise as part of varied and entertaining talks.

Pastel-coloured colonial cities, the metropolis Panama City, and sailing with the trade winds: Curaçao – San José (Puerto Limón)

Idyllic sailing along the trade winds
In winter and spring the Caribbean trade winds provide ideal speeds and perfect stability while delivering extremely pleasant air and water temperatures. The many hours out at sea will turn into a real joy for the tall ship, and a delight for those looking to enjoy freedom beneath the sails. All this in stunning waters.

Visit two of the ABC islands: Aruba and Curaçao
Aruba and Curaçao make up the A and C of the ABC islands and belong to the Kingdom of the Netherlands. Their distinctive features – including Delft tiles, Dutch gable houses, palms and the pastel colours of the Caribbean – make this an enchanting destination. Curaçao boasts a UNESCO World Heritage Site in the shape of its small capital Willemstad.

Panama City and the Panama Canal
When the Panama Canal opened in 1914 after more than 30 years of construction, this shortened the route for ships sailing between New York and Los Angeles by almost 15,000 kilometres (9,320 miles). Panama City has experienced enormous growth ever since. The contrast between its ultra-modern banking centre and lovingly restored historic quarters is what makes this city Central America’s style capital.

Visit six Latin American countries – experience Belize’s coral reefs, Mexico’s ancient Maya sites and fiery Cuban rhythms.

Several relaxing days at sea
Besides crossing worlds, discovering new lands, and enjoying both the excitement of the shore and relaxing hours at sea, for five whole days we let rest and relaxation take a front seat on our yacht. Plenty of time to enjoy life under the white sails and for pure indulgence.

The world’s second largest coral reef

Maya cities in Mexico and Belize
The sophisticated culture of the Maya in Central America, which began roughly 5,000 years ago and ended around the time of the Spanish conquest, is still a mystery. Their ceremonies seem to have been gory, their step pyramids imposing, and their stone carvings required a great deal of skill. On our trip you will discover three mystical Maya strongholds: Tulum in Mexico is the only Maya city situated on the coast; Altun Ha and Lamanai are in Belize. Lamanai is situated on the banks of an inland lagoon and remained populated for roughly 3,000 years. Excavations have revealed that over 20,000 people lived there around 700 AD.

Trinidad’s old town
Trinidad de Cuba is a small, friendly place with a long history as a centre for sugar cane farming. Experience its charming coastal setting, lovingly restored facades and gentle pace of life in any of the town’s beautiful squares and old, narrow streets. This small town has a well-deserved place on the UNESCO World Heritage Site list.

Havana’s Tropicana
Discover the place where Nat King Cole, Frank Sinatra, and Josephine Baker took to the stage and where Edith Piaf, Ernest Hemingway and Marlon Brando applauded wildly in the audience: the legendary Tropicana in Havana. With its colourful shows, this cabaret nightclub is just as magical, vivacious, and thrilling as it was when it opened back in 1939.

Burghard Pieske actually studied geography and education, but he has also qualified as a ship’s captain. Since he spent ten years sailing around the world, he has been focusing on reliving authentic historic sailing adventures. He is an author, adventurer and freelancer for “Yacht” magazine.

Tilman Giezendorf
With degrees in law and tourism & business administration, Tilman Giezendorf has been working in the travel industry since 1990. He has visited more than 70 countries, gaining plenty of experience as tour guide and lecturer.

Depending upon the circumstances, it is possible that other lecturers will be on board for this trip.

Sail with the trade winds to pastel-coloured paradises, to Panama and Costa Rica: Curaçao – San José (Puerto Limón)

Idyllic sailing along the trade winds
In winter and spring the Caribbean trade winds provide ideal speeds and perfect stability while delivering extremely pleasant air and water temperatures. The many hours out at sea will turn into a real joy for the tall ship, and a delight for those looking to enjoy freedom beneath the sails. All this in stunning waters.

Visit two of the ABC islands: Aruba and Curaçao
Aruba and Curaçao make up the A and C of the ABC islands and belong to the Kingdom of the Netherlands. Their distinctive features – including Delft tiles, Dutch gable houses, palms and the pastel colours of the Caribbean – make this an enchanting destination. Curaçao boasts a UNESCO World Heritage Site in the shape of its small capital Willemstad.

Panama City and the Panama Canal
When the Panama Canal opened in 1914 after more than 30 years of construction, this shortened the route for ships sailing between New York and Los Angeles by almost 15,000 kilometres (9,320 miles). Panama City has experienced enormous growth ever since. The contrast between its ultra-modern banking centre and lovingly restored historic quarters is what makes this city Central America’s style capital.

A lecturer accompanies the trip
Knowledge, entertainment and facts – our expert is on hand to give talks on a wide variety of specialist subjects. He will also be on board to answer any questions that you may have.
Through the Panama Canal to the unique natural treasures of Costa Rica and Panama.

Panama City and the Panama Canal
It took 30 eventful years for the Panama Canal to be finally completed. In 2014, this huge construction was celebrating its 100th anniversary and the new three-tier lock system will be brought into service in 2016. Traveling through the canal during the day is a very special experience. Panama City is the latest top destination in Central America and also an absolute must-see, with its historical quarters and the ultra-modern centre creating an appealing contrast.

Costa Rica’s and Panama’s Pacific coast: perfect sailing waters
The Pacific coast is blessed with an abundance of natural beauty, reliable winds, outstanding anchorages, lush green coasts and radiant sunshine. Columbus named Costa Rica “La Huerta”, or “the garden”, and the name is just as fitting today as it was back then.

The Coiba National Park
The Coiba National Park is one of the largest marine national parks in the world and was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2005. Made up of 38 smaller islands and the larger Coiba Island, the park is home to many indigenous plant and animal species. And as this is also the ideal habitat for marine wildlife, you are more than likely to encounter one of the park’s 23 whale and dolphin species.

The picture-perfect beaches of Costa Rica and Panama
On the tranquil coasts of Costa Rica and Panama, unforgetable natural scenery and beautiful relaxing beaches can be found just a few steps away from one another. Paradisiacal conservation areas blend into charming bays, and shady palms line the beaches as if on a picture postcard. What is more, if you really just want to relax, you will find the perfect place to do so in the soft sand of Coiba, Tortuga and the Islas de las Perlas.

The Corcovado National Park: one of the most picturesque areas of Costa Rica
Stretching out into the Pacific Ocean, the Osa Peninsula is home to one of Costa Rica’s unspoiled rainforests. Gigantic trees reach up to 80 metres (262 feet) into the air, while around 400 different species of bird fill the skies. The forest is also home to a host of other wildlife including tapirs, pumas, jaguars, ocelots and anteaters.

Granada – a UNESCO World Heritage Site
Situated picturesquely at the foot of a volcano and on the shore of a lake, the Nicaraguan town of Granada never ceases to conjure up stunning views of the natural and the man-made. Founded by the Spanish in 1524, it was one of the most influential towns in Central America for around 200 years. It is still considered an insider tip among the region’s colonial pearls. The significance of its historical legacy has earned it a very special seal of approval: a place on the UNESCO World Heritage Site List.

Two scientists accompany the trip
The fascinating flora and fauna in Costa Rica’s national parks are bound to throw up questions. Therefore, two scientists with a detailed knowledge of the region’s various ecosystems will be on hand to answer them. They will give presentations and accompany the shore excursions.

Fascinating flora and fauna, the metropolis Panama City and the Panama Canal: San José (Puerto Limón) – San José (Puntarenas)

Costa Rica’s Pacific coast – perfect sailing waters
The seas surrounding Costa Rica are the perfect place to go sailing, and the Sea Cloud II is the perfect yacht to sail them. Her course leads you to the widely spread national parks, ensuring that you arrive completely refreshed and ready to begin new adventures on land.

The construction of the century – the Panama Canal
Building work on Central America’s famous artificial waterway began way back in 1881, but it would take more than 30 years for the canal to be finally completed. The Panama Canal is now used as a passageway between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans and has been since 1914. This technical marvel formed of locks and channels also includes two artificial lakes. One of them, Lake Gatún, is now flourishing once more with a diverse range of flora and fauna; the lake has been reclaimed by mother nature.

The Coiba National Park
The Coiba National Park is one of the largest marine national parks in the world and was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2005. Made up of 38 smaller islands and the larger Coiba Island, the park is home to many indigenous plant and animal species. Sailing with the warm trade winds, walking in tropical nature and hours spent relaxing with a French flair: Barbados – Barbados

Tobago: an island paradise
The small fishing village of Charlotteville is situated in Tobago’s idyllic Man-O-War Bay and can only be reached by land via a steep road which cuts through the rainforest. With the ship anchored in the town’s picturesque bay, you will have plenty of time to discover the island or to plunge into the emerald-green waters.

Snorkellers’ paradise in the Tobago Cays
A unique feature of the Tobago Cays is their unspoilt coral reef, known as the “Horseshoe Reef” due to its shape. It keeps the Atlantic swells at bay and is the perfect place for snorkelling. Once back on dry land, you will be treated to a beach barbecue with culinary specialities.

Stunning islands: St Lucia and Dominica
Although St Lucia is not considered a saint by everyone, the island is certainly the true queen of this idyllic realm. Even from a distance, its twin volcanic peaks, the Pitons, proffer a regal greeting to the approaching Sea Cloud II. And once we have docked, the island welcomes us with its lush tropical scenery. Dominica, unofficially dubbed “Nature Island”, is proud of its unspoilt landscape. One of its national parks is even a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Regatta on the jet set island of St Barts
The fact that St Barts can only be reached by small aircraft often attracts international celebrities who come to enjoy relaxing days on the tranquil beach or head to the capital of Gustavia. A highlight for sports fans is the Bucket Regatta, a remarkable sailing event which is held in March every year and sees 30 stylish superyachts compete against one another.
Island paradises, small harbour towns and a rendezvous with the Sea Cloud – two weeks around the Lesser Antilles and the Grenadines.

With the ship anchored in the town’s picturesque bay, you will have plenty of time to discover the island or to plunge into the emerald-green waters.

A delight for all the senses: Grenada, the island of spice
There is a reason why nutmeg is immortalised on this country’s national flag. Since colonial times nutmeg – along with cloves, cinnamon and ginger – has been one of the island’s most important exports. If the aromatic fragrance of the tropics were to have a name, it would have to be “Grenada”.

A day at the beach on the popular sailors’ island of Bequia
The Sea Cloud II drops anchor in Admiralty Bay at Port Elizabeth on Bequia. It is the meeting place for round-the-world sailors and private luxury yachts. Our zodiacs bring you to the town or to one of the island’s most beautiful beaches. You will have plenty of time for whatever you choose, be it swimming, snorkelling or taking a stroll.

French style on the Îles des Saintes
The Îles des Saintes give such a welcoming first impression, though the historical Fort Napoléon that towers over the main island is a reminder of less peaceful times. The little town on Terre-de-Haut is perfect for taking a stroll, and the savoir-vivre of life here unfolds against a backdrop of the glowing pastel colours of the Caribbean.

Easter exotic style – a kaleidoscope of tropical forests, snorkelling paradies and sailors’ haunts: Barbados – Barbados

Grenada – the island of spice
Although Grenada has been blessed with around 45 picture-perfect beaches, the country’s real treasure remains its lush, green island interior. Deep volcanic lakes, dense rainforests, waterfalls and small river courses form the primordial backdrop of the island’s sugar cane fields and spice plantations. It is the reason why the scent of cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg hangs in the air wherever you go on Grenada.

The magnificent Pitons of St Lucia
Gros and Petit Piton, the two famous volcanic plugs that tower over St Lucia, could have come straight out of a tropical storybook. They are a UNESCO World Heritage Site and offer a spectacular panorama as the Sea Cloud II sails closely alongside their slopes.

Snorkellers’ paradise in the Tobago Cays
For many, life under water is a fascinating world – one that becomes even more magical the closer you get. The Tobago Cays’ Horseshoe Reef is such a place. This horseshoe-shaped coral reef encloses four small islands that glow in rich shades of green. The sea, in contrast, embraces turquoise, emerald and every shade of blue.

Enjoy the sunny side of the Lesser Antilles and sail alongside the legendary Sea Cloud: Barbados – Barbados

A windjammer rendezvous in idyllic waters

When the Sea Cloud II meets the Sea Cloud against an exquisite Caribbean backdrop and they sail together, there is a real sense of joy at the reunion of these two ships. One moment, the windjammers glide majestically side by side; then again they compete in a playful race under full sail. The elegant sisters cruise for a whole afternoon between Guadeloupe and the Îles des Saintes, which makes for some stunning photo opportunities.

French style on the Îles des Saintes

The Îles des Saintes give such a welcoming first impression, though the historical Fort Napoléon that towers over the main island is a reminder of less peaceful times. This small town’s promenade is perfect for taking a stroll, and the savoir-vivre of life here unfolds against a backdrop of the glowing pastel colours of the Caribbean.

The jet set island of St Barts

St Barthélemy has had several masters: the Spanish, the Swedes, the French and the Knights of Malta. However, it is now firmly in the hands of the jet set, who come here for short breaks to get away from it all. All of the yachts in the harbour are worth looking at, as are the bars and restaurants.

Exquisite culinary delights and selected wines – these experts will be joining us on board:

Michelin-starred chef Harald Rüssel
31 May to 02 June 2016

After completing his culinary training, Harald Rüssel enjoyed spells in several renowned restaurants across Germany and the south of France. Upon returning to Germany, he held a post at the Zur Traube hotel in Grevenbroich and joined the team at the legendary Schweizer Stuben restaurant in Wertheim-Bettingen.

It was here that Rüssel first met sommelière Ruth Weis, whose family ran the renowned St Urbans-Hof winery in the central Moselle region. Under Dieter Kaufmann, the couple worked side by side at Zur Traube as part of the kitchen and service team. Ruth and Harald found they had a shared passion for hospitality and gastronomy, and they realised their dream of calling a small hotel their own when they opened the Landhaus St Urban. Since October 1992, they have devoted themselves to running RÜSSEL’s Landhaus hotel and gourmet restaurant in Naurath/Wald in Drohntal, Germany. Rüssel was awarded his first Michelin star back in 1994. Since then, the “Landhaus” has been highly praised by critics and is considered one of the 30 best restaurants in the whole of Germany. In the Hasenpfeffer restaurant, run alongside the main Landhaus gourmet restaurant since 2012 and dedicated to hunting, one of Harald Rüssel’s passions, guests can enjoy naturally healthy local cuisine.

Harald Rüssel is particularly passionate about the use of regional products, and his gourmet cuisine is no exception. His on-board creations will include a gala menu that showcases his fondness for classic French cuisine.

Wine expert Nik Weis
28 May to 04 June 2016

Nikolaus (Nik) Weis is the third generation to oversee the St Urbans-Hof vineyard that was founded by his grandfather in 1947. In 1969 Nicolaus Weis senior was awarded the honorary title of “Ökonomierat” by the the Governor of Rhineland-Palatinate for his long-standing work in the wine sector. The title still forms an integral part of the winery’s name today. Nik Weis’ father, Hermann, acquired additional vineyards, which means that today Nik has the choice of 34 hectares, including prime locations along the Moselle and Saar.

Nik Weis grew up with his parents’ business, which includes not only wine making facilities but a vine nursery as well. After finishing his degree in viniculture, viticulture and oenology, he consolidated his expertise in Champagne (France), California, Canada and in the Nahe River region. Now in his own vineyard, St Urbans-Hof, this Francophile is constantly finding ways to combine millennia-old tradition with innovative methods. Today the St Urbans-Hof vineyard is listed as one of Germany’s finest winegrowers.

The winery’s philosophy is to produce Riesling that is firmly rooted in the region. In order to get the best out of the “terroir” of each individual growing site, the vineyards are handled both intensively and traditionally. The yields are kept low in order to create full-bodied and intensive wines. Careful canopy management and a late harvest ensure optimal ripening of the grapes, which generates an abundance of aromas. All the grapes are also picked by hand.

It is one of the world’s most spectacular botanical gardens.

Porto’s admirers love Ribeira, the city’s old town and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, with its narrow streets and stone staircases that wind their way up the hill to the cathedral. A short break amidst artistic delights and natural wonders on the sun-kissed coasts of Galicia and Portugal: Bilbao – Lisbon

Santiago de Compostela – a place of pilgrimage
Santiago de Compostela, one of the world’s most famous pilgrimage sites, is the final stop and climax of the Way of St James – a pilgrimage route that has been followed since the 11th century. During this time, the city’s magnificent cathedral was also established as one of the most important pilgrimage sites in Christianity, alongside Rome and Jerusalem. This building, together with the old town, is protected by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site.

The Islas Cíes Nature Reserve
According to Galician legend, the Cíes archipelago is the place where God rested on the seventh day after he created the world – and it is easy to see why. The site, now a nature reserve, encompasses a substantial area of sea and three islands which, with their steep coasts, sand dunes and small forests, are perfect for individual hikes.

Enjoy the autumn sun on a relaxing Mediterranean voyage along the coastlines of Sardinia, Corsica and Elba: Barcelona – Nice

Menorca – the pristine Balearic island
From the rugged mountain region of Tramuntana in the north of the island, with its steep coastal areas, to gentle rolling hills and vast sandy beaches in the south – Menorca’s natural beauty has many facets. Es Grau is a particular treasure – a romantic sandy bay in the north of the island, right in the heart of a conservation area. If you prefer the romantic setting of ancient narrow passageways, you will find just what you are looking for in Ciutadella, the island’s former capital.

The beautiful Costa Smeralda
The emerald coast certainly lives up to its name; its waters sparkle and shimmer like a jewel with tones of green, blue and turquoise, “framed” by snow-white rock faces and beaches. This coastal area first came to prominence through its development by Aga Khan, who has been protecting the coast from architectural eye-sores since the 1960s whilst preserving the area’s natural beauty and creating stylish, picturesque holiday resorts.

The natural bay of Bonifacio
Sailing into Bonifacio is quite simply a spectacular experience – a steep, shimmering white chalk cliff, a small town that appears to be floating magnificently on the plateau and a fjord-like bay which gives way to an elegant marina. Those who wish may explore the area’s medieval upper town or take a stroll along the promenade.

Charming Corsica: Saint Florent and Nebbio
Whilst the harbour town of Saint Florent with its luxury yachts reminds of some of the hallmarks of St Tropez, in the winding alleys of its rustic old town, you will encounter true Corsican charm. The delightful town of Saint Florent is the capital of the fertile Nebbio region, stunning views of which can be enjoyed from the black tower overlooking the small village of Nonza.

As fiery as a volcano – experience Sicily’s natural and cultural treasures up close: Malta – Naples

Sicily’s many facets
The largest of the Mediterranean islands is a fabulously diverse microcosm in its own right with its rich cultural history, which dates back 3,000 years with memorials marking each era, with Europe’s highest and most active volcano, Mount Etna, and with towns and villages featuring a character and flair all of their own.

Syracuse: UNESCO World Heritage Site
Cicero once described Syracuse as “the greatest and most beautiful of the Greek cities”. Up to a million people – three times the population of mighty Athens – are claimed to have lived there in antiquity. This city on the small island of Ortigia was later conquered first by the Romans, then by Arabs, Byzantines and Normans. They have left behind a unique architectural heritage: UNESCO declared Syracuse a World Heritage Site in 2005 due to its archaeological importance.

A masterwork of mosaics: the Cappella Palatina
The narrow streets of Palermo’s historic centre with their rattling Vespa scooters and vivacious market women lead to the impressive Norman palace. Inside you will find the famous Cappella Palatina. Its richness is simply overwhelming: The erstwhile royal chapel is decorated with elements of both Christian and Islamic style, artistic carvings and marble floors. It contains an inner room which is entirely covered with precious golden mosaics.

The magical culture of the Moors, fairytale Morocco and the picture-perfect Canary Islands: Málaga – Las Palmas

The imperial city of Rabat
Rabat, the capital of Morocco, is one of the country’s four imperial cities. Rabat’s iconic landmark, the Hassan Tower, was built when the city was capital of the Sultanate. The tower is now located within one of the city’s upmarket residential areas. With its various districts, this city has many facets. The traditional souk with its surrounding wall can still be found in the old town, and the Ville Nouvelle offers magnificent boulevards and Art Deco buildings.

Magical Marrakech
Snake charmers and fortune tellers, jugglers and spice traders – the Djamaa el-Fna market place is the hotspot for everything that makes Marrakech a living fairytale. The red facades lining the maze of oriental streets conceal magnificent mosques, cool courtyards and luxurious gardens. One hallmark of the people here is their warm hospitality, which often finds expression in a cup of sweet tea.

Exclusive evening in Manrique’s lava chambers
César Manrique is undoubtedly Lanzarote’s most famous son. With Jameos del Agua, he took partially collapsed volcanic caves and turned them into a stunning architectural ensemble: Here black lava rock, a glistening white pool and tropical plants combine to form a surreal work of art. In an underground concert hall famed for its outstanding acoustics, guests of the Sea Cloud II will enjoy an unforgettable evening.

Sail with the trade winds through the ever-changing island landscape of the Canaries: Las Palmas – Las Palmas

Many magnificent hours at sea
In late autumn the reliable trade winds and the Canaries' mild climate ensure ideal sailing conditions. The day is yours to relish the wonderful windjammer experience however you please. And when the Sea Cloud II drops anchor in the afternoon or early evening, there will still be plenty of time to explore the surrounding area.

The diversity of the Canary Islands
Gran Canaria, Tenerife, El Hierro, La Palma and La Gomera – during this cruise you will discover the two bigger and three smaller Canary Islands. Walking along the promenades, through narrow alleyways or alongside the sea, you will experience the diverse character of these islands: from cosmopolitan style in Las Palmas to quiet introspection in rustic San Sebastián.

Nature at its best: the Garajonay and Caldera de Taburiente national parks
Magical trade mists, gnarled pine trees, babbling head streams – when the Garajonay and Caldera de Taburiente national parks were created, the Canary Islands guaranteed protection for two of its most outstanding ecosystems. Whilst Garajonay’s misty evergreen forest boasts over 1,000 animal species, Caldera de Taburiente impresses with an enormous, rugged volcanic crater.

The joys of the Caribbean, nature in all its glory and a holiday with a dash of French style: Barbados – Barbados

Idyllic sailing along the trade winds
In winter and spring the Caribbean trade winds offer perfect speeds and consistency and deliver wonderful air and water temperatures. The many hours spent out at sea are a real joy for the tall ship.

French style on the Îles des Saintes
The Îles des Saintes give such a welcoming first impression, though the historical Fort Napoléon that towers over the main island is a reminder of less peaceful times. This small town’s promenade is perfect for taking a stroll, and the savoir-vivre of life here unfolds against a backdrop of the glowing pastel colours of the Caribbean.

The jet set island of St Barts
Although many like to call it “St Barts” for short, the island’s official name is St Barthélemy. Having seen numerous owners, the isle was finally bought by France in 1877 and is now firmly in the hands of the jet set. When banker David Rockefeller first bought property here in 1957, the island’s future was sealed. Elegant Gustavia entices with classy goods and glamour hidden away behind restored facades, and the harbour hosts luxury yachts of famous owners.

A natural beauty: Dominica
With its thick virgin forest, hot springs, roaring waterfalls and numerous exotic bird species, Dominica has more than earned its self-adopted epithet “The Nature Island”. This island, the shooting location for two “Pirates of the Caribbean” films, is also home to the ruined British outpost of Fort Shirley. The hill where it stands offers stunning views over the bay.

Experience ten island treasures in 14 days and treat yourself to some winter sun.

French style on the Îles des Saintes
The Îles des Saintes give such a welcoming first impression, though the historical Fort Napoléon that towers over the main island is a reminder of less peaceful times. The little town on Terre-de-Haut is perfect for taking a stroll, and the savoir-vivre of life here unfolds against a backdrop of the glowing pastel colours of the Caribbean.

The jet set island of St Barts
When the banker David Rockefeller came to this island in the 1960s, he realised one thing: that this is a great place to live. Since then, the small Antilles island of St Barthélemy has welcomed an increasing number of celebrity guests and evolved into a getaway for the rich and famous. Many Hollywood stars love to come here for a holiday retreat and enjoy taking a stroll along the quaint streets of Gustavia.

Sailing along the trade winds
“Trade winds” is the name given to the powerful currents of air that great seafaring nations used to rely upon to carry their fleets across the Atlantic. Today they are one of the reasons why the Lesser Antilles have become a paradise for sailing enthusiasts. The warm trade winds that blow around the Leeward Islands mean sailors constantly have the wind in their sails.

The natural beauty spots of St Lucia and Dominica
The pitons of St Lucia are world famous and magnificently beautiful. But perhaps even more beautiful is the unique view you will have of this stunning natural masterpiece from the Sea Cloud II’s anchorage. Dominica is one of the wildest and most primal of the Lesser Antilles. The heart of the island is covered in thick virgin forest, where you will find plunging rivers and small creeks winding their way through the jungle.

Tobago: an island paradise
The small fishing village of Charlotteville is situated in Tobago’s idyllic Man-O-War Bay and can only be reached by land via a steep road which cuts through the rainforest. With the yacht anchored in the town’s picturesque bay, you will have plenty of time to discover the island or to plunge into the emerald-green waters.

A delight for all the senses: Grenada, the island of spice
There is a reason why nutmeg is immortalised on this country’s national flag. Since colonial times nutmeg – along with cloves, cinnamon and ginger – has been one of the island’s most important exports. If the aromatic fragrance of the tropics were to have a name, it would have to be “Grenada”.

Bequia and the Tobago Cays – popular sailors’ haunts
In the small town of Port Elizabeth on Bequia you will find sailors meeting for a catch up on the local beach or outside the town’s small bars. The small archipelago of the Tobago Cays offers protected anchorages in its lagoons. Beach heaven awaits you there.

Leaving all your cares behind as you sail to green volcanoes, famous sailors’ haunts and heavenly snorkelling spots: Barbados – Barbados

Grenada – the island of spice
Although Grenada has been blessed with around 45 picture-perfect beaches, its real treasure is its lush, green island interior. Deep volcanic lakes, dense rainforests, waterfalls and small river courses form the primordial backdrop of the island’s sugar cane fields and spice plantations. Therefore, the scent of cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg hangs in the air wherever you go.

Snorkellers’ paradise in the Tobago Cays
For many, life under water is a fascinating world – one that becomes even more magical the closer you get. The Tobago Cays’ Horseshoe Reef is such a place. This horseshoe-shaped coral reef encloses four small islands that glow in rich shades of green. The sea, in contrast, embraces turquoise, emerald and every shade of blue.

The magnificent Pitons of St Lucia
Gros and Petit Piton, the two famous volcanic plugs that tower over St Lucia, could have come straight out of a tropical storybook. They are a UNESCO World Heritage Site and offer a spectacular panorama as the Sea Cloud II sails closely alongside their slopes.

Bequia: a sailors’ haunt
Bequia is a very special gem in the picture-perfect island chain that is the Grenadines. For many years the island was known only to sailors and adventurers, which preserved much of its original, old Caribbean charm. With its colourful wooden houses, free-roaming hens and sailing yachts that span the full range of ages and prices, it is hard not to get swept up in the relaxing and uplifting atmosphere felt all over the island.

Islands born from the flames, a sea made for tall ships, relaxing beaches and a touch of colonial history.

Stunning islands: St Lucia and Dominica
Although St Lucia is not considered a saint by everyone, the island is certainly the true queen of this idyllic realm. Even from a distance, its twin volcanic peaks, the Pitons, proffer a regal greeting to the approaching Sea Cloud II. And once we have docked, the island welcomes us with its lush tropical scenery. Dominica, unofficially dubbed “Nature Island”, is proud of its unspoilt scenery. One of its national parks is even a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

St Barts – an island with style
Columbus came in 1493 followed by French colonists, Caribbean buccaneers, Swedish slave traders and, finally, the Rockefellers. Today St Barts sells itself as an elegant island with a strong emphasis on sophisticated indulgence – whether you are in one of its many exquisite restaurants, strolling along the yacht harbour or sun-bathing on its fine-sandy beaches.

“The Baths” – imposing granite formations
It is sometimes easy to think that this is one of nature’s fairy tales: Once upon a time, there was a giant who played with large stone marbles. His favourite playground was in Virgin Gorda, a place now called “The Baths” – a gigantic rock labyrinth made out of circular-shaped granite.

Snorkellers’ paradise in the Tobago Cays
For many, life under water is a fascinating world – one that becomes even more magical the closer you get. The Tobago Cays’ Horseshoe Reef is such a place. This horseshoe-shaped coral reef encloses four small islands that glow in rich shades of green. The sea, in contrast, embraces turquoise, emerald and every shade of blue.

A day at the beach on the popular sailors’ island of Bequia
The Sea Cloud II drops anchor in Admiralty Bay at Port Elizabeth on Bequia. It is the meeting place for round-the-world sailors and private luxury yachts. Our zodiacs bring you to the town or to one of the island’s most beautiful beaches. You will have plenty of time for whatever you choose, be it swimming, snorkelling or taking a stroll.

French style on the Îles des Saintes
The Îles des Saintes give such a welcoming first impression, though the historical Fort Napoléon that towers over the main island is a reminder of less peaceful times. The little town on Terre-de-Haut is perfect for taking a stroll, and the savoir-vivre of life here unfolds against a backdrop of the glowing pastel colours of the Caribbean.

Knowledge, entertainment and facts – our expert is on hand to give talks on a wide variety of specialist subjects. He will also be on board to answer any questions that you may have.
